DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 26 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The applicant claims a further outermost part adapted to be nested within the outer part. The claim limitation is confusing as how is the outermost part, not the outmost part. It is unclear to the location of the outermost part.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 19-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hujar (US 5,557,807). Hujar teaches a headwear including a crown shape 1 and impact resistant inner 6 portion adapted to nest within the outer part 1 with an intermediate part 16 composed of fluid and supported by the outer and inner portions.

As to claim 20, the fluid 16 is placed in removable pouches 7.

As to claim 21, the semi liquid gel like fluid 16 is freezable.

As to claim 22, the hat further comprises a further part 13 positioned between the intermediate and outer parts.

As to claim 23, the further material would be pliable and have insulating properties.

As to claims 25, 29, and 30, the hat 1 has a brim portion as shown in Fig. 2 which would also be a peak extending from the rim portion.

As to claim 26, the outermost part of the hat would be capable of nesting within the outermost part of another hat.

As to claim 27 and 31, Hujar further teaches a further innermost part which is a harness for the protector 21 having a strap 19 engaging the outermost part and extending from one side of the rim to the other.

As to claim 33, the outermost part would have impact resistant properties.

As to claim 35, the claim has no structural limitation.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 32 and 34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hujar (US 5,557,807) in view of Lo (US 6,493,880). Hujar is silent to the material used for the outermost layer. Lo teaches a hat made with gores 14-17 comprising stretchable woven fabric. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to add the woven stretchable fabric to provide a comfortable fit for the wearer.
